

DRAFT AGENDA - November 18, 2015 - 11:30am-6pm

11:30am-12noon	Check-In/Lunch Pick-up/Headshots
12-1pm	Keynote Address Malina Simone Jeffers, Mosaic City Mali is the founder of Mosaic City, an organization dedicated to finding creative ways to address diversity, equity, and inclusion needs in cities. Mali previously worked as the artist services manager at the Arts Council of Indianapolis and the director of marketing and programs at Madame Walker Theatre Center. She also uses her hometown passion in her role as Love Indy project manager for Plan 2020, Indianapolis' bicentennial planning agenda.
1-1:15pm	Finish Check-In/Break/Headshots
1:15-2:15pm	What do you want in Greensboro? Group brainstorming session looking at progress in Greensboro and what young people want to see happen in our community.
2:15-2:45pm	Tips & Tricks for Networking Eric Melniczek, High Point University Learn effective tools for networking – especially in those awkward situations.
2:45-3:15pm	Cultural & Economic Impact of Ethnosh Donovan McKnight, Face to Face Greensboro Find out about the growth of ethnosh, unique ethnic food events, and its economic impact to the Greensboro community.
3:15-3:30pm	Break/Networking/Headshots
3:30-4:00pm	Using LinkedIn Effectively Mary Lesa Pegg, UNC Greensboro Most of us have a LinkedIn account but do you really know how to use it? Learn about growing your network, most impactful profiles & pictures, how to look for a job and more.
4:00-4:30pm	TBD
	Description
4:30-5:00pm	Community Minded Development Kristina Fuller, Crafted & Andy Zimmerman, Developer Have you checked out The Forge makers space? Or grabbed a bite at Crafted The Art of Street Food? Hear from chef/owner Kristina Fuller and Developer, Andy Zimmerman about their development philosophy and their community involvement and influence.
5-6:30pm	Networking Reception - Location TBD Network with young professionals and meet representatives from local nonprofits