

DRAFT AGENDA - November 18, 2015 - 11:30am-6pm

11:30am-12noon	Check-In/Lunch Pick-up/Headshots
12-1pm	Keynote Address Malina Simone Jeffers, Mosaic City Mali is the founder of Mosaic City, an organization dedicated to finding creative ways to address diversity, equity, and inclusion needs in cities. Her keynote will address the following: The new definition of jobs (what she does, how millennial's define work and the opportunity we have to change the world); The role of civic pride in cities (how civic pride impacts city growth); and why diversity is so 2005 (how to engage diverse communities, how we should be moving past diversity and toward equity)
1-1:15pm	Finish Check-In/Break/Headshots
1:15-2:15pm	What do you want in Greensboro? Group brainstorming session looking at progress in Greensboro and what young people want to see happen in our community.
2:15-2:45pm	Tips & Tricks for Networking Eric Melniczek, Career Advisor, High Point University Career & Professional Development Learn effective tools for networking – especially in those awkward situations.
2:45-3:15pm	Cultural & Economic Impact of Ethnosh Donovan McKnight, Face to Face Greensboro Find out about the growth of ethnosh, unique ethnic food events, and its economic impact to the Greensboro community.
3:15-3:30pm	Break/Networking/Headshots
3:30-4:00pm	Using LinkedIn Effectively Mary Lesa Pegg, UNC Greensboro Most of us have a LinkedIn account but do you really know how to use it? Learn about growing your network, most impactful profiles & pictures, career advancement tips and more.
4:00-4:30pm	Unconventional Leadership and The Iron Yard Jessica Mitsch, Director of Global Campus Operations, The Iron Yard Hear about Jessica Mitsch’s personal experiences as a young professional taking a risk by leaving Red Hat to explore a leadership role with the Code Academy at The Iron Yard and how she manages and works with a diversity of ages. Also learn about the successes of the code academy in the community.
4:30-5:00pm	Community Minded Development

	Kristina Fuller, Crafted & Andy Zimmerman, Developer
	Have you checked out The Forge makers space? Or grabbed a bite at Crafted The Art of Street Food ? Hear from chef/owner Kristina Fuller and Developer, Andy Zimmerman about their development philosophy and their community involvement and influence.
5-6:30pm	Networking Reception - Location TBD
	Network with young professionals and meet representatives from local nonprofits